

Boston Advocates for Catholic Education (BACE)

Boston Advocates for Catholic Education (BACE) is a diverse group of people living in the Boston area. Its members gather together each month to celebrate Mass and share dinner.

During Lent, they go on an overnight retreat, which is always a great way to build fellowship and re-center themselves during the hustle and bustle of life. Furthermore, one of their focuses this year is to provide direct service to Boston Catholic schools through service projects of all kinds. There is no minimum requirement to participate. BACE members welcome everyone, and will be excited to see you for one event or twenty!

BACE is an outgrowth of ACE Advocates for Catholic Schools, which recognizes the value of a quality Catholic education. Its members believe that an excellent Catholic education should be available and accessible to all who desire it for their children.

ACE Advocates is a national movement uniting Catholic school supporters under a common mission: to foster greater commitment to, support of, and innovation for Catholic schools. Its members invite the participation of all who love Catholic schools, from teachers and administrators, to parents and alumni, to lawyers and business professionals, to the clergy and religious who first built the American Catholic school system.

Founded in 2003, ACE Advocates continues to be an integral part of the University of Notre Dame's Alliance for Catholic Education. Its members are active across the United States and abroad, responding to the needs of Catholic schools through its growing regional network and through the efforts of dedicated individuals.
